

MYANMAR EMERGENCY APPEAL

Punk Ethics and No Sweat have launched an urgent appeal for funds in solidarity with Food Not Bombs Myanmar and the Burmese trade union movement via the CTUM.

In the aftermath of a devastating earthquake, with reports of international aid efforts being restricted by the Military Junta, it's fallen on the people to organise relief themselves. In the midst of a revolution that has consumed the country for three years this couldn't have come at a worse time.

All money raised will go to supporting grassroots rescue and relief efforts.

MYANMAR SOLIDARITY

The people of Myanmar need our support now more than ever. Reports are coming through of an imposed 10pm curfew and military harrasment of local rescue teams, disrupting efforts to save lives in the wake of the disaster. In spite of this, volunteers continue to bravely risk their own safety to help their communities.

Funds are urgently need for essential aid including; food, clean drinking water, temporary shelters, emergency toilets and sanitation, power generators and fuel for transport and excavators.

That's where we can help.
